ORDER OF DETENTION PENDING TRIAL

In accordance with the Bail Reform Act, 18 U.S.C. § 3142(f), a detention hearing has been held. I conclude that the following facts are established by a preponderance of the evidence or clear and convincing evidence and require the detention of the above-named defendant pending trial in this case.

[] (3) A period of not more than five years has elapsed since the (date of conviction) (release of the defendant from imprisonment) for the offense described in finding 1.

[] (4) Findings Nos. 1, 2, and 3 establish a rebuttable presumption that no condition or combination of conditions will reasonably assure the safety of any other person and the community. I further find that the defendant has not rebutted this presumption.

Written Statement of Reasons for Detention

I find that the accusations in the indictment, information submitted in the Pretrial Services Agency report, and information at the detention hearing establish by a preponderance of the evidence that no condition or combination of conditions will reasonably assure the appearance of the defendant as required.

I conclude that the following factors specified in 18 U.S.C. § 3142(g) are present and are to be taken into account:

1. Defendant is a naturalized U.S. citizen born in Spain who grew up in Miami and New Orleans. He moved to Houston in 2013. For the last year he has lived with his fiancé with her two children. Prior to that he lived in hotels in Miami. He has two children, a 22 year old in the military and a 13 year old who lives in Louisiana. His mother lives in Louisiana and his brother lives in Spring, Texas. He has no contact with his father who lives in Miami. He possesses an expired passport. Defendant reports he has been employed as a diesel mechanic for the last year.
2. Defendant's criminal history includes two charges of felony burglary and a conviction for carnal knowledge of a juvenile. He has 4 prior charges of failure to register as a sex offender, leading to at least one conviction. He violated the terms of his probation on that conviction due to a conviction for possession with intent to deliver heroin.
3. Defendant is charged with failure to register as a sex offender in violation of 18 U.S.C. § 2250(a). He faces a potential penalty of up to 10 years in prison.
4. Defendant has a history of unstable living situations and weak financial ties to this community. He has a history non-compliance with probation, and absconded from the last known address given to the Florida Sexual Offender Registry.
5. There is no condition or combination of conditions of release which would assure the appearance of the defendant in court. Detention is ordered.

Directions Regarding Detention

It is therefore ORDERED that the defendant is committed to the custody of the Attorney General or his designated representative for confinement in a corrections facility separate, to the extent practicable, from persons awaiting or serving sentences or being held in custody pending appeal. The defendant shall be afforded a reasonable opportunity for private consultation with defense counsel. On order of a court of the United States or on request of an attorney for the Government, the person in charge of the corrections facility shall deliver the defendant to the United States Marshal for the purpose of an appearance in connection with all court proceedings.

Signed at Houston, Texas, on September 30, 2014.
